LESS IS MORE FOR ZOIE

AFTER: Zoie hopes to lose three stone by next year

Dagenham girl named Slimming World Woman of the Year

AN ACCOUNTS manager who won a prestigious competition after losing six stone in a year is to become an ambassador for other slimmers.

Zoie Holterman, of Charlie Cott Road, Dagenham, who was named Slimming World Woman of the Year this month, is to lead her first group at The Church of St John the Evangelist, St John's Road, Seven Kings, tomorrow (Saturday, September 26) from 10am.

The 42-year-old lost 5st 7lbs in 13 months, despite undergoing surgery and a 12-day hospital stay following a fall at home in October.

The former Canon Palmer School pupil dislocated her right knee and ruptured her right quadriceps muscle which had torn the thigh muscle from the bone.

She said: "I had lost two stone through my group when I fell on wet wood flooring in my bare feet and I crashed to the ground."

"I immediately knew I had seriously injured myself. I quickly realised that it was more important than ever to continue my weight loss, not just for the cosmetic appearances and smaller dress sizes, but to be able to still use my legs.

"Now with everything out there for me to achieve I am so pleased that my slimming consultant saw something in me and now I am looking forward to becoming a consultant for others."

Zoie, who is a former member of the Chadwell Heath branch, insists that without her weight loss, she would have been "wheelchair bound".

The slimmer suffers from arthritis, a skin condition called cellulitis and repeated blood infections, making exercising difficult.

She is to give advice from Saturday on how to lose weight by introducing small amounts of exercise and eating the right balance of foods.

For more information about the group call 07713 981073.

COMPETITION

Win spooky fun day out to Marsh Farm

GRAB your wellies and follow the scarecrows to Marsh Farm's exciting Pumpkin Patch event in October half-term.

Get ready for Halloween by digging up your own pumpkin – one free for every child – in an educational activity at the farm from October 24 to 31 which helps children learn about where food comes from, how it looks as it grows before going to the supermarket.

Then decide whether you want to head into Chicken Coop Crafts to carve your pumpkin into a spooky face for Halloween, or take it home and make some warming autumn recipes.

Tickets cost £11.50 on the door or £9.99 online, with children under two getting in for free. Tickets include entry to the farm's Witches & Wizards Week.

If you can't wait, the farm has Dinosaur Days from September 26-27, when you can go back 200million years and meet Jurassic beasts, excavate fossils, join craft workshops and follow clues on the T-rex Trail.

Whatever time of year you visit you can have fun meeting the animals, seeing the birds of prey show, watching a milking demonstration and even take part in Shaun the Sheep Championsheeps Live at weekends.

For more about events at Marsh Farm Animal Adventure Park, situated in Marsh Farm Road, South Woodham Ferrers, visit www.marshfarm.co.uk.

To win one of 10 family tickets, each admitting two adults and two children to the park during its Pumpkin Patch event answer the following question.

Q: On what date do we celebrate Halloween?

A: October 29

B: October 30

C: October 31

To enter the competition telephone your answer –

FACES: Children can dig their own pumpkins from the Pumpkin Patch and head to Chicken Coop Crafts and carve them at Marsh Farm this half-term

A, B or C – to (0901 307 1670) along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YAPATCH (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333. Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more.

Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message. Lines close on Thursday, October 1. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged. Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, SW4 7BX. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

Tributes flood in for pearly queen killed in road crash

By Matthew Stanton

redbridge@yellowad.co.uk

TRIBUTES have been paid to the Pearly Queen of Redbridge after she was killed in a car crash along with her sister-in-law.

Margaret Oliver, known as Peggy, of Parkes Road, Chigwell, was killed alongside Joyce Carr, who was Pearly Queen of Southwark, as she drove back from her brother's care home in Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire, on Saturday, September 19.

The 84-year-old, who had three daughters and a son, was driving a Nissan Micra when it was in collision with a black Nissan Qashqai in Kings Ripton, at around 7.45pm.

The grandmother's niece, Denise Carr, from Kent, who was a passenger in the car, was taken to hospital where she remains in a stable condition.

Peggy's ex-husband, Philip Oliver, who wed the pearly queen in 1951, and their four children are now organising her funeral.

He said: "The family are all cracked up. Peggy was a lovely mother and we are all very upset. We have all had a weep."

"Peggy was a very popular character in the community. If someone tried booking her to sing songs, she never refused."

"She raised a tremendous amount of money for charity."

"Hundreds of people will be at her funeral. She was loved."

Tributes have been paid on social media to Peggy, who has been Pearly Queen of Redbridge since March 1981, including messages from Wes Streeting, MP for Ilford North.

Peggy, who was educated at Pewsey and City Lit, Camden, attended hundreds of events over 30 years.

These included the Theydon Bois Parish Council afternoon tea for the elderly on March 12, 2010, where she sang songs from the 1850s to 1950s, the street parties of Gordon Road, College Garden and Abbotsford Road in 2012, and numerous school fetes including Newbridge School in Barley Lane, Goodmayes, on October 15, 2011.

Animal lover Peggy was also a regular at the Kenneth More Theatre in Ilford and was present at the Annual London Mayors' Pantomime, Jack and the Beanstalk, in March 2008.

One of Peggy's last appearances was the Victory over Japan celebration at Ilford Golf Club on August 21.

George Major, Pearly King of Peckham, spoke of his shock over the death of both Peggy and Joyce, who was made an MBE.

He said: "I knew both women. Peggy was a lovely lady, very much liked by everyone and dedicated her life to charity."

"She had a fantastic personality. I remember how she would always wear her pearls down the street and how friendly she was to everyone."

In 2001 and 2008, Peggy was awarded a Lifetime Achievement award from Redbridge Council for services to local charity groups specialising in the handicapped, youth projects and the elderly.

The keen singer was invited to a Buckingham Palace garden party in 2003 after being honoured by the council and was entered on the council's civic list.

Ron Jeffries, editor of St Peter's Church Broadsheet for the parish of Aldborough Hatch, enjoyed her company at many events including the mayor's carol service on December 20, 2012.

He said: "Peggy was a tremendous fundraiser and such a down to earth person. She could relate to anyone. No matter their position in the world, she could talk at their level. I remember how she was always smiling and singing. Redbridge has lost a star."

Hollywood and home grown stars will be on the red carpet at the London Film Festival as 238 of the latest releases are shown over 12 days at the London Film Festival. CHARLES THOMSON reports

HOLLYWOOD stars are preparing to descend on the capital for the London Film Festival.

Tickets are on sale for the annual British Film Institute (BFI) event.

The 12-day event, with screenings in central and east London next month will include 238 feature films and 182 shorts.

Stars already confirmed to attend include Meryl Streep, Benedict Cumberbatch, Kate Winslet, Cate Blanchett, Michael Fassbender and Dame Maggie Smith. Breaking Bad's Bryan Cranston, Slumdog Millionaire director Danny Boyle and Dark Knight Trilogy director Christopher Nolan are also slated to appear.

The festival will open on October 7 with Suffragette, which depicts British women's struggle for the right to vote.

Carey Mulligan and Helena Bonham Carter will join co-star Meryl Streep at the red carpet premiere in Leicester Square. Dame Maggie Smith's latest film

DELIGHTED: Managing director Julian Drury, centre, front, with staff from across c2c

Train operator wins top award

A TRAIN operating company covering Essex and east London has scooped a prestigious national award.

National Express train operator c2c won the UK's best train operator award at the National Rail Awards for the first time in the company's history.

The firm was presented with the Passenger Operator of the Year accolade.

The judges praised c2c for the raft of new initiatives introduced for passengers in the past year and for maintaining its position as the most punctual train operator in the country.

Managing director Julian Drury said: "We are thrilled to have won the most coveted award in the rail industry, and I'm really proud of the contribution every single member of staff has made to this achievement.

"In the past year we have launched a wide range of improvements for our customers and taken action to provide them with greater value and pioneering new technology."

Since c2c started its new franchise in November 2014, improvements introduced for customers include the "smartcard" scheme, free wi-fi at all stations, the "live" app, and discounts on tickets for advance travel, students and seniors.

Teens' hospital teamwork rewarded

TEENAGERS have been singled out for their community achievements at a national awards ceremony.

The Young Advisors charity awarded the achievements of Waltham Forest's youth engagement groups, the Waltham Forest Young Advisors and Youth Independent Advisory Group.

Two awards for partnership working were given to each of the groups as part of the "Team Together" award category.

Both groups were given accolades to recognise their efforts working in partnership to help support young people across the borough.

They recently worked together to survey young people in Whipps Cross Hospital's accident and emergency department about their experience of urgent care as part of a commission for independent consumer champion Healthwatch Waltham Forest.

ACCOLADE: The teens were praised for their work

Happy birthday to wartime blogger, aged 89

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

MORE than 300 people have celebrated the birthday of a Walthamstow war child who regularly blogs on social media.

Celebrations for Ivy Thacker's 89th birthday were held inside Vestry House Museum, in Walthamstow, on Saturday, September 19. The party included family members, council dignitaries and community members.

Ivy, who lives in supported housing in Waltham Forest, grew up and worked in Walthamstow during the Second World War.

As part of a multimedia project run by the council for older and vulnerable adults, she has been given support using computers and tablet devices – and connected with people on Twitter using a daily diary.

The pensioner has more than 400 followers and her updates give people a glimpse into the life of an 18-year-old girl growing up in London's East End while the war in Europe raged on.

To catch up with the story being told through her diary follow @diaryivy on Twitter.

Accountants' gift really adds up...

A PLAY scheme has received a substantial cash boost from kind accountants.

The Summerworld Play Scheme at Redbridge Jewish Community Centre, in Woodford Bridge Road, Clayhall, was handed a £750 donation from Haslers, in Old Station Road, Loughton.

The money is to help fund new play equipment at the centre.

It provides activities during the school holidays for children in the borough.

Peugeot 508 addition is a great all-rounder

By Maxine Ashford

PEUGEOT'S popular 508 line-up was extended to include a highly-efficient six-speed automatic RXH model and the car is certainly an impressive all-rounder.

It benefits from standout Peugeot design cues, including the company's new upright grille with the Peugeot Lion at its centre and distinctive light clusters that make the car instantly recognisable at night from the front or rear thanks to the feline claw-shaped LEDs.

It's not all for show because these lights are perfect for illuminating bends when cornering – they are economical, fast and very effective.

This car also came with 18-inch alloys, roof rails, privacy glass and a massive panoramic sunroof that seems to defy gravity and stretch the entire length of the cabin allowing light to flood in.

The interior is beautifully modern and clutter-free with a host of technology to be explored.

Techno treats are plentiful and included automatic dual-zone air conditioning, a DAB digital radio, CD player, Bluetooth connectivity, a seven-inch multi-function colour touch-screen, sat nav, heated electric seats with memory settings on the driver's side and a colour head-up display system.

The car is very spacious with ample room for five adults to stretch out in style.

PREMIUM QUALITY: Peugeot 508 RXH BlueHdi 180 automatic

Luggage restrictions need not apply either as the large boot has a capacity of 512 litres which can be increased to 1,598 litres with the rear seats dropped flat.

There is also room beneath the boot floor, but the absence of a spare wheel is disappointing.

Elsewhere there are numerous storage compartments, such as a deep central bin, good-sized door pockets, handy trays, a glovebox and cup holders that pop out from the front of the dashboard.

Powered by a 2.0-litre HDi 180bhp diesel engine, the 508 RXH was a pleasure to drive in busy traffic and out on the open road.

The acceleration was smooth with a constant supply of power on tap at all times.

The six-speed automatic transmission was responsive and the steering wheel-mounted paddles mean the driver can take a little extra control if so desired.

Comfort levels proved high and there was next-to-no engine, road surface or wind noise to speak of. Added to that, the vehicle's effective suspension system ironed out any road creases too.

My only gripe after clocking up almost 500 miles was some irritating glare on the wind-screen caused by the speaker on top of the dashboard and the head-up-display mountings. That aside, the car was sprightly and had impressive performance stats with a 0-62mph sprint time of 9.7 seconds, top speed of 136mph, combined fuel economy of 61.4mpg and carbon emissions of 119g/km. And all for the competitive price of £30,895 (£31,765 with options).

Safety specifications are comprehensive with anti-lock brakes, electronic brake force distribution, electronic stability control, traction control, blind spot detection, numerous airbags and more.

All in all, the Peugeot 508 RXH is a fabulous all-rounder offering premium quality styling with state-of-the-art technology, excellent driving dynamics and good economy.

HAMMERS STUN CITY AT ETIHAD

West Ham United

Manchester City 1
West Ham United 2
Brian Jeeves reporting from the Etihad Stadium

WEST HAM UNITED continued their sparkling run of away form as goals from Victor Moses and Diafra Sakho helped the Hammers to a 2-1 victory over Premier League leaders Manchester City on a pulsating afternoon at the Etihad Stadium.

Despite picking up notable victories on the road at Arsenal and Liverpool, this was always going to be a huge test for the Hammers.

City had picked up maximum points from their five previous matches, scoring 11 times in the process without conceding. Nevertheless, Manuel Pellegrini's charges had displayed uncharacteristic vulnerability during their midweek Champions League defeat to Juventus. And with West Ham playing some exhilarating football of late, the travelling support headed for the North West in an optimistic state of mind.

And the Hammers fans' mood improved further in the opening minutes. Fernandinho met Kevin De Bruyne's flag-kick with a full blooded header, only for Hammers recalled keeper Adrian to fist away. And within seconds West Ham had sprung to the other end and stunned the home support into silence. Chelsea loanee Moses made the most of Dimitri Payet's industry to fire beyond England goalkeeper Joe Hart from 25 yards to hand the Hammers the lead.

With the Hammers' performances at the Emirates and Anfield in mind, this was perhaps not so much of a surprise as many would make out.

Nevertheless, an edgy looking City searched for an immediate response. Argentine star Sergio Aguero seized onto some hesitant defending from Aaron Cresswell to round Adrian, but was unable to direct his attempt into a gaping goal.

Despite enjoying the better of possession, City were unable to trouble a resolute West Ham rear-guard, and just after the half-hour the visitors punished them further.

Winston Reid and Pedro Obiang helped on Moses' troublesome corner, and Diafra Sakho was on hand to beat Hart from close range and double the Hammers advantage, sending shockwaves around the Etihad Stadium.

Raheem Sterling fired just wide of the target, while Adrian desperately clung to Aguero's point-blank effort as City desperately looked for a foothold. As the half drew to a close, Aguero fired high and wide, much to the frustration of the agitated home crowd.

But just as West Ham contemplated returning to the dressing room in a commanding position, City hit back. De Bruyne's low drive from just outside the box whistled past the outstretched hands of Adrian and nestled in the bottom corner of the net.

The second period was clearly going to be a test of the Hammers resolve as a fired up City looked to restore parity. Cresswell put his body on the line to block Yaya Toure's venomous drive, while the excellent Adrian did well to thwart the marauding Ivory Coast international after he had bundled his way through the Hammers back line.

At the other end, Sakho was unable to add to the visitors advantage after wriggling his way clear.

City continued to press relentlessly. Toure passed up a glorious opportunity, sending a right-footed strike the wrong side of an upright. Soon after Adrian produced an unorthodox save to deny Jesus Navas, while De Bruyne's effort was scrambled away as West Ham hung on doggedly.

In response, Joe Hart was forced into a smart stop from Payet low to his right as the Hammers made a rare foray forward.

But West Ham again proved to be awayday specialists, holding firm to record a third successive notable scalp on the road, moving into second place in the Premier League table, three points behind City, until Manchester United won at Southampton later.

After the game, delighted Hammers boss Slaven Bilic said: "It is a surprise to be honest. They have done brilliantly tonight."

"With the greatest respect to Liverpool and Arsenal, this team is the best in the league. We knew it was going to be like that and we knew we were going to have to score goals to get something from this game. We knew we had to run as a unit like crazy and also we knew we were going to have to be lucky when needed.

"Simply it is very difficult or quite impossible to stop for 90 minutes the class that is on the pitch. But we did it."

City manager Manuel Pellegrini cut an altogether more forlorn figure, stating: "We are frustrated because there were three very important points here at home. We talked before the game and said that they were a difficult team, who won their two away games before. But we conceded two goals that allowed them to lead, and that maybe was one of the reasons that we didn't win today."

The Hammers will look to build on their home form when Norwich City visit Upton Park in the Barclays Premier League on Saturday, kick-off 3pm.

Manchester City: Joe Hart, Bacary Sagna, Nicolas Otamendi, Aleksander Kolarov (Kelechi Iheanacho), Eliaquim Mangala (Martin Demichelis), Raheem Sterling (Wilfried Bony), Kevin De Bruyne, Jesus Navas, Yaya Toure (Capt), Fernandinho, Sergio Aguero.

Subs not used: Willy Caballero, Pablo Maffeo, Fernando Reges, Patrick Roberts.

West Ham United: Adrian, Winston Reid, Aaron Cresswell, James Tomkins, Carl Jenkinson (James Collins), Pedro Obiang, Diafra Sakho, Mark Noble (Capt), Victor Moses (Michail Antonio), Dimitri Payet, Manuel Lanzini (Nikica Jelavic). Subs not used: Darren Randolph, Andy Carroll, Mauro Zarate, Reece Oxford.

Referee: Robert Madley.

Assistants: Michael McDonough and Marc Perry.

Fourth Official: Craig Pawson.

Attendance: 53,543.

Non-league round-up

Purcell and Fallah three and easy

By Brian Jeeves

GEORGE Purcell was once again the man in form as Ryman League Division One North outfit AFC Hornchurch thrashed rivals Barkingside 5-1 at Bridge Avenue.

Purcell grabbed a hat-trick while David Knight and Tobi Joseph were also on target. Luke With's goal was of little consolation for beaten 'Side.

David Fallah also picked up the match ball as entertaining Aveley won 5-2 at Wroxham.

Liam Nash and James Peagram added the other goals as the Millers won at a canter in Norfolk.

Tilbury were also amongst the goals, edging out Phoenix Sports in a 5-3 thriller at Chad Fields. Harry Cook bagged a brace for the Dockers. Neil Richmond, Emiel Aiken and Kirt Smith confirmed the win.

Ross Wall also scored twice as Thurrock won 4-2 at Heybridge Swifts. Ross Gleed and Keke Orth scored Thurrock's other goals, while Billy Hunt and Alalberto Pinto responded for the hosts.

But it was a bad day for the region's other Division One North teams. Jay Nash found the net for Great Wakering Rovers, but could not prevent the villagers slipping to a 3-1 defeat at league leaders Cray Wanderers, while Redbridge were thumped 5-2 at Thamesmead and Romford crashed 2-0 at home to Brightlingsea Regent.

In the Ryman Premier Division Brentwood Town continued to perfect the art of scoring. Dean Holdsworth's charges emphatically won 5-1 at Lewes, with Philip Anderson, Jamie Guy, Liam Hope, Tom Richardson and Robbie Rees on target.

That aside, it was a rough day for our Premier Division teams. Nicke Kabamba grabbed the only goal as Hampton & Richmond Borough condemned Billericay Town to a frustrating defeat at New Lodge, and Grays Athletic also fell at home, going down 2-0 to Bognor Regis Town. Lewis Smith and Sam Higgins found the net for East Thurrock United, but the Rocks went down 3-2 at Staines Town.

On Sunday, Canvey Island lost 2-1 against Kingstonian at Kingsmeadow. Pico Pelayo-Gomez and Daniel Sweeney put the hosts in the driving seat before Martin Tuohy pulled one back for the Gulls just before the break. But the visitors misery was compounded when Tambeson Eyong received a straight red card for retaliation.

In the National League Braintree Town produced a fantastic performance to win 4-0 at Altrincham.

Kenny Davis (pen), Michael Cheek, Anthony Edgar and Miles Taylor found the net for the Iron, who are now up to seventh in the table.

In National South Steve Cawley's early penalty for Concord Rangers was not enough as Whitehawk hit back to win 2-1 at the Aspect Arena, while Bern Wright's late goal saw Maidenhead United send Chelmsford City spinning to a disappointing 1-0 defeat.

There were plenty of goals in the Essex Senior League with Ilford leading the way, hammering Enfield 1893 5-2 at Cricklefields.

Hullbridge edged out Newham by the odd goal in seven at Lower Road, while Stansted saw off Southend Manor 4-2.

Basildon United took maximum points after beating Waltham Forest 2-1, and it was the same outcome at Leslie Field where Burnham Ramblers saw off Takeley.

Elsewhere leaders Bowers & Pitsea were held 2-2 at Wadham Lodge, while Tower Hamlets and Barking also shared four goals in another entertaining affair.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Harold Hill edge out Rayleigh Town by a single goal in their Premier Division encounter.

In Senior Division One Dan Gibbons (2), Craig Jenkins and Reece Conway were on target as Basildon Town thrashed Ongar Town 4-0.

Orient salvage point again in game of two halves

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 1
Wycombe Wanderers 1
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

JAY Simpson was again the O's saviour after his second-half strike cancelled out Matt Bloomfield's effort last Saturday.

Wycombe, though, will be kicking themselves for allowing the O's a share of the spoils and had total control – especially when they looked more like the home side and only restricted the league leaders to half-chances in a desperately one-sided opening period.

The Chairboys fully deserved to go ahead with the first goal the O's had conceded at home this season, but Bloomfield's goal was controversial as team-mate, George Ugwu appeared to handle Joe Jacobsen's 40th minute cross and the veteran skipper rammed home past a helpless Alex Cisak from point-blank range.

O's Boss Ian Hendon needed a half-time reshuffle. Ollie Palmer replaced the ineffective Lloyd James and almost immediately the former Mansfield hitman's presence helped by creating a chance for Paul McCullum, whose rising drive flew inches wide.

The Chairboys should have been heading home with the three points on 66 minutes, but Marcus Bean lacked composure in front of goal.

That miss proved costly as the O's were level within a minute after Palmer and fellow sub Blair Turgott set up top scorer Simpson, who netted with a curling effort that was always going to beat Matt Inghram.

Lifted by their leveller, the home side stepped up a gear with Sammy Moore and Palmer going close. But Simpson missed their best chance with 12 minutes left when it looked easier to score.

The afternoon turned sour when a youth decided to invade the pitch, causing a delay which lost the O's their momentum.

Wanderers then took the initiative and could consider themselves unlucky not to win an 87th minute penalty when Palmer felled Bloomfield.

But the O's held on and with Bristol Rovers levelling in stoppage time at Plymouth, the east Londoners remained top of Sky Bet League Two.

Hendon admitted: "It was a good point – as we knew what we would be coming into today."

"Wycombe are a tough side to beat. They got to the play-off final last year. We came up against a good side."

"They hadn't conceded a goal away from home and you could see how hard they are to break down."

"We would have loved to get three points, but it was a battling performance and we had to change the way we played in the second-half. I'm happy with the point."

Wycombe boss Gareth Ainsworth added: "Orient have got a lot of players on big money and a big budget. To come to places like this shows how far we have far we have come. This is a good point for us."

Clutching his man-of-the-match champagne, Palmer said: "At half-time we would have taken the point, but in the end we were disappointed not to take all three."
